Fulcher, Riley are wed

Miss Sheila Annette Fulcher and PFC Daniel Joseph Riley were united in marriage on Saturday, Oct. 20 at two o'clock in the afternoon at Paradise Lake in Appomattox.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Anne Fulcher of Lynchburg and the late William Thomas Fulcher. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin G. Riley of Spout Spring.

The Rev. Frank Casper, pastor of Calvary Baptist Church, Concord, officiated at the ceremony.

A program of nuptial music was provided by Mrs. Dot Hamilton, organist and Miss Gayle Reynolds, soloist.

The bride, escorted by her uncle, Percy E. Fulcher of Forest, wore a white princess gown of satin and lace with a high victorian neckline accented with pearls. The skirt was full with a flowing chapel length train. She had a fitted headpiece of lace adorned with flowers and pearls and full veil. She carried a bouquet of fresh white and lavendar carnations, white rose buds, daisies and baby's breath.

Miss Emily Sue Fulcher was her sister's maid of honor. She wore a floor length princess gown of lavendar silk and lace. She carried a bouquet of lavendar, purple, and white silk daisies, small mums, violets and baby's breath.

Bridesmaids were Miss Deborah Riley, sister of the groom, and Mrs. Glenda Elliott cousin of the bride. Their gowns were similar to the maid of honor. They carried similar bouquets.

Mr. Robbie Quaintance was best man. Ushers were Mr. Robert Riley, brother of the groom and Mr. Irby Jones.

The groom wore his Marine dress blue uniform and the groomsmen wore silver gray tuxedos. Their boutonnieres were silk carnations.

Miss Stephanie A. Ramsey was flower girl. She wore a white lace and satin floor length gown. She wore a lavendar and white arrangement with lavendar streamers in her hair. She carried a white wicker basket with a lavendar silk arrangement on the side of the basket. She dropped lavendar daisy petals.

Master William Berk Edwards was ring bearer. He wore a white tuxedo and carried a heart shaped pillow with white lace and accented with doves and white streamers.

The mistress of ceremonies was Mrs. Barbara F. Williams, sister of the bride. Miss Michelle Hamilton attended the register.

The mother of the bride wore a grey and black street length dress and a corsage of white silk rosebuds. The mother of the groom wore a gray and white street length dress and a corsage of white silk rosebuds.

Following the ceremony, the parents of the bride entertained with a reception at Paradise Lake. The band Westbound provided the music. Mrs. Delores Bell, cousin of the bride, was in charge of the reception. Mrs. Cyndie Montgomery, Mrs. Carolyn Rugloski, Miss Leah Spence, Miss Elizabeth J. Thompson, Mrs. Julie Quaintance, Miss Karen E. Fulcher of Baltimore, Md., Mr. Sonny Martin, nephew of the bride, and Ms. Betty Johnson assisted with the reception.
